CAUSE

On May 8, 2008, this Probation Officer was contacted by the defendant's father, William Gay, Sr., who stated that his son borrowed the family vehicle on May 2, 2008, to cash his Government of Guam payroll check, however, he failed to return home on a timely basis. Instead, the defendant returned home on Saturday morning, May 3, 2008. Mr. Gay surmised that his son was up to his "old habits" and when further questioned, Mr. Gay indicated that his son used to be addicted to gambling machines. On May 9, 2008, this Officer spoke to the defendant who admitted that he has a gambling problem. He agreed to be referred for a mental health assessment, and, if deemed appropriate, participate in treatment services.

The defendant submitted to DNA collection on September 13, 2006, completed the drug treatment and drug testing program on July 30, 2007, paid his special assessment fee on July 23, 2007, paid his fine on July 23, 2007, and completed 100 hours of community service on November 13, 2007. He remains compliant with his other conditions of supervised release and is gainfully employed.

Attached is Probation Form 49, Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision, with the defendant's consent to the modification.
